AMUSEMENTS.

IN SALT LAKE THEATERS.

SALT LAKE THEATRE—Maude Fealy in "The Stronger Sex." 8:15 p. m.; matinee, 2:15.

GRAND THEATRE—"The Sweetest Girl in Dixie." Evening, 8:15; matinee, 2:30.

ORPHEUM—High-class vaudeville. Matinee, 2:15. Evening, 8:30.

LYRIC THEATRE—High-class vaudeville. Matinee, 2:30. Evening, 7 and 9.

Maude Fealy and her capable company presented last evening "The Stronger Sex" to a delighted audience. A matinee will be given this afternoon and the engagement will close with the performance tonight.

Today's matinee and evening performance of "The Sweetest Girl in Dixie" at the Grand closes the engagement of that company. Starting tomorrow evening, E. J. Carpenter, late offering, "Why Girls Leave Home," will be seen here for the first time and said to be a most unusual play of great intensity. Mr. Carpenter is said to have spared no expense in staging the play, the scenic investiture being very elaborate.

The most flattering praise is being showered upon the famous original Irish comedian, Murray and Mack, for their clever and entirely original methods shown in musical comedy of a unique order which has been listened to "The Sunny Side of Broadway." It comes to the Grand Sunday, Oct. 27, for four performances.

With today's matinee and tonight's performances, this week's popular bill closes at the Orpheum.

There is no use attempting to account for the certain fascinations that military uniforms have for the female heart. There's no use denying it either, for a halo is promptly cast about any stalwart youth and there are many who, once the halo radiates and enshines the uniform in the heart of nearly every American maiden who boasts a spark of patriotism and where is there one who does not? Herbert Carter, who, as Lieutenant Parkes in the "Royal Chef," which appears at the Salt Lake Theater on Monday night, has made a distinct hit in the role.

Distress after eating, belching, and nausea between meals are symptoms of dyspepsia, which Hood's Sarsaparilla always cures.

Last day of our phenomenal black silk sale

It has been a wonderful week in the silk aisle. Hundreds and hundreds of yards of elegant, rich black silks have found new owners this week. Never have we sold so many "blacks" in a corresponding period of time. Positively the greatest chance you ever had to save. Blacks are right, too.

About 5000 yards left to dispose of Saturday—all day long the rush will continue—people recognize a real opportunity.

Partial mention of the reductions here. Many others will be seen in the department.
